The IBM ITSO publishes the Redbooks we all know so well. But it also publishes what IBM calls TechNotes. Technotes are brief, focused documents on a topic, such as "Journaling -- System ASP or User ASP." They offer tips and techniques to address some of our most frequently asked questions.

Click here to see the System i-related Technotes at the IBM ITSO System i Tips website.

Here's the list of recent Technotes dealing specifically with System i journaling:
